

Arthur P. Meister

8 River Road Drive
Essex, Connecticut 06426
(860)767-9093

QUALIFICATIONS

Comprehensive training, liaison, and public speaking experience. A strong background in all aspects of criminal investigation, security processes and managing programs having national and international impact.

EDUCATION

1994 – Graduate Certificate, Public Policy, University of Southern California

1981 – Master's degree, Public Administration, University of New Haven

1975 – Bachelor's degree, Criminal Justice, University of New Haven

EMPLOYMENT

2002- President, APM Associates.

A consulting firm specializing in management training for handling problem employees, workplace violence, performance documentation, coaching and counseling, leadership and communication. Associated with Halle Barry Group, Atlanta, Ga.
www.hallebarrgroup.com

1998–2001 Chief, Violent Criminal Apprehension Program (ViCAP), Critical Incident Response Group (CIRG), Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), Quantico, Virginia.

ViCAP is a national computerized behavioral based crime analysis system that identifies and tracks serial murderers and rapists. Managed the distribution, installation, and training, for software/hardware placement needed to build ViCAP national network. Established and supervised standard operating procedures for effective coordination in and between over 400 participating agencies. (Retired from Federal Service on 2/1/02).

1995–1998 Chief, National Center for the Analysis of Violent Crime (NCAVC), CIRG, FBI, Quantico, Va.

The NCAVC provides behavioral based criminal investigative analysis (c-i-a) services to law enforcement agencies worldwide. It included the Profiling and Behavioral Assessment Unit, Arson/bombing Investigative Services, a joint FBI/Department of Energy Chemical/Biological/Nuclear Threat Assessment Crisis Center, and VICAP (prior To its becoming a separate unit). Involved with CIRG emergency Response and security duties at major events, catastrophes, and Crimes.

1990–1995 Supervisory Special Agent (SSA), Organized Crime/Gangs Squad, FBI's Metropolitan Field Office, Washington D.C.

In charge of Organized Crime (OC) investigations for Washington D.C., area in coordination with FBI National Strategy. Supervised 30 plus employees. Successes included an international undercover case with a budget of 2.5 million dollars, a national racketeering investigation of America's second largest maritime union, and an effective Asian OC task force comprised of federal, state and local police. Taught courses on investigative operations at the International Law Enforcement Academy in Budapest, Hungary.

1988-1990 SSA, Organized Crime Section, FBI Headquarters

Program manager of the FBI's OC National Strategy for the cities of San Francisco, Los Angeles, Detroit, Phoenix, Sacramento, El Paso and Albuquerque. Duties involved management oversight of undercover operations, international liaison, requests for "special" investigative authorities, and financial audits.

1985–1988 SSA, Management Science Unit, FBI Academy

Certified as an adjunct instructor with the University of Virginia, teaching accredited undergraduate and graduate level management courses to police executives in the FBI's National Academy. Program Manager of the FBI Field Supervisor's Management Seminar, a mandatory training curriculum for all FBI field supervisors.

1978-1985 Special Agent, Newark, New Jersey Division, FBI.

Agent in charge of a successful five year nationwide OC racketeering investigation involving supermarkets and the wastepaper recycling industry, utilizing wide variety of complex investigative techniques.

1968-1978 Trooper/Detective, Connecticut State Police (CSP)

Served in patrol, research and planning, and homicide with the CSP Headquarters Major Crimes Bureau.